MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT : Address to National War College

STAT

[redacted] GS-15 of the Office of Communications who is one of our officers attending the National War College this year, commented on an incident following our talks there on 28 August which will interest you. He said that when they recessed to their "home room" a Navy captain (submariner) accosted [redacted] who is attending for the Department of Defense, and said, "These CIA fellows tell us how good coordination is between the agencies, but I really wonder. How did you find it?" [redacted] replied, "If anything, they understated it. Coordination couldn't be better."
